INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Dear Mr. Groves:

Please refer to our lease agreement dated December 10, 1973 covering sixty (60) open top hopper cars numbered GIHX 1501 - 1560.

After the signing of our agreement, it became necessary for us to borrow money to finance the purchase of the cars. In order to protect you, as well as the lender, we think it appropriate to add a paragraph to our lease agreement. This paragraph will be worded:

- *17. Anything to the contrary herein contained notwithstanding, this Lease shall always be subject and subordinate to any purchase money security interests retained by any vendor of the cars to Fox or granted by Fox to the lender of purchase monies at any time, provided, however, that GFH shall have the right to continue to lease the cars from the holder of such security interest upon the terms and conditions of this Lease unless and until GFH is in default under any provision of this Lease."

If you are in agreement to the addition of this paragraph, please sign below.

Very truly yours,

FOX LEASING COMPANY
